

To Whom It May Concern,

There is nothing but undesirable music, news, traffic and weather on the radio stations so much of the time that I pay to have the XM service and that should include all aspects of radio. If the FCC is going to say that Bono won't get fined for using foul language on broadcast television, which I disagree with, then don't have the audacity to tell me what I can and can't have on my paid satellite radio service.